Loyola Example Course Schedule Version B*

Schedule Version B is an example of courses students may take if they enter graduate school in an even year (E.g. 2018, 2020, 2022, 2024, etc.)

*Please note that this sample course is reflective of students who decide to pursue both the Neuropsychology Module and Child, Adolescents and Family track.

Year 1 (Fall)
- 412 Introduction to the Profession of Clinical Psychology
- 432 Intellectual and Personality Assessment
- 446 Adult Psychopathology
- 482 Advanced Statistics

Year 1 (Spring)
- 491 Multivariate Statistics
- 568 Evidence-Based Practice in Clinical Psychology
- 420 Research Methods in Psychology
- 438 Child Assessment

Year 1 (Summer)
- 436 Psychopharmacology

Course Elective

Year 2 (Fall)
- 464 Practicum in Psychotherapy I Class
- 451 Psychopathology of Childhood and Adolescence
- 552 Neuropsychology

General Psychology Core (Cognitive/ Social)
  - Practicum at the Loyola Wellness Center

Year 2 (Spring)
- 464 Practicum in Psychotherapy II Class
- 401 History and Systems
- 553 Neuropsychological Assessment
- 452 Clinical Treatment of Children and Adolescents
  - Practicum at the Loyola Wellness Center

Year 2 (Summer)

Course Elective

Year 3 (Fall)
- 560 Human Diversity

General Psychology Core (Cognitive/ Social)

Advanced treatment class
  - Off-campus practicum
Year 3 (Spring)
510 Ethics and Professional Practice
473 Social Development
   - Off-campus practicum

Year 3 (Summer)
Clinical Qualifying Examination (summer after 3rd year)

Year 4
Off-campus practicum
Clinical Competence Examination (May, 4th year)

Year 5
Off-Campus Practicum
Dissertation Research Proposal

Year 6
Internship
Dissertation Research Defense