MARK 201 – Section 107, Fundamentals of Marketing, Spring 2018, Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, 10:25 AM to 11:15 PM, Schreiber - Room 605, 25 E Pearson, Chicago, IL 60611

Prerequisite: Sophomore standing or above.

This course develops an understanding of the marketing systems by which organizations plan, price, promote and distribute products and services to selected target markets.

Course Overview and Learning Outcomes

Overview: MARK 201 Fundamentals of Marketing seeks to introduce Marketing as a critical function of any business organization. Fundamental concepts including the 4Ps (product, place, price, and promotion) are the focus of the course; the 4Ps foster knowledge of other marketing principles including the importance of strategy planning and associated tactics, consumer behavior, marketing research, and ethical marketing practices.

Outcome: Students analyze market conditions, apply basic tools, and develop marketing strategies to successfully meet customers' needs thereby creating sustainable competitive advantage.

Course Core Objectives

Core learning objectives include:

- Recognize the need to scan the external and internal environments of an organization.
- Develop analytical skills related to planning, pricing, promoting and distributing products and services.
- Apply the process of segmentation, targeting, and positioning.
- Describe the relationship between marketing and corporate social responsibility.
- Recognize the role of marketing within the firm and society, domestically and globally.

Required Materials

Text Book: Marketing, by Kerin and Hartley, 13th Edition, ISBN-13: 978-1-259-57-3545, McGraw Hill Education. Our text will be supplemented with the McGraw Hill Connect learning system.

Supplementary Resources

From time-to-time, relevant articles and white papers will be posted to Sakai.

Course Requirements and Grading Criteria

First Exam (10%)

All exams will cover assigned reading, lectures, class presentations, and guest speakers. Details will be discussed in class.

There will be no makeup exams except for circumstances outlined in the Quinlan School of Business policies.

Midterm Exam (15%)

The midterm exam will cover assigned reading, lectures, class presentations, and guest speakers. Details will be discussed in class.

Final Exam (25%)

The content of the final exam will prioritize content covered after completion of the Midterm. However, many concepts referenced in the final exam build upon foundational principles introduced earlier in the course.

Group Marketing Plan Oral Presentation (5%)

Teams of 5 to 7 students will create a 10-minute oral presentation of their marketing plans. Presentations will be made in PowerPoint. Grades will be based on group performance.

Group Marketing Plan Written Presentation (25%)

Teams of 5 to 7 students will create a 10-page, double-spaced marketing plan. Grades will be based on group performance. The rubric, suggested outline, and examples, are posted in Sakai. A peer evaluation form will be completed after the presentation. A peer evaluation form will be completed after the presentation. Group members who aren't fully contributing to their group may be fired by a unanimous vote of contributing members.

McGraw Hill Connect (10%)

Students are required to complete the online Connect reading and learning system for all assigned chapters in our text.

Class participation (10%)

Students are expected to read the assigned materials and come to class prepared to discuss the assigned readings and supplementary resources. Your class participation grade will be based on your attendance, contributions to classroom discussion, and group peer reviews.

Quinlan School of Business Policies:

Please refer to the Quinlan School of Business Academic Integrity Policy.

Attendance

Class attendance and participation are fundamental components of learning, so punctual attendance at all classes, for the full class meeting period, is expected of Quinlan students. If you are unable to make class, please email me in advance. Lecture notes will not be posted to Sakai.

You will be on the honor system to track your absences throughout the entire semester and inform me of the number of classes that you have missed when I ask from time-to-time.

Un-excused absences/leaving early will be reflected in your class participation grade.

Make-Up Examinations

Loyola University academic policy provides that tests or examinations may be given during the semester or summer sessions as often as deemed advisable by the instructor. Because Quinlan faculty believe examinations represent a critical component of student learning, required examinations should be taken during the regularly scheduled class period. Make-up examinations are discouraged. Exceptions may be granted only by the faculty member or department chair, and only for unavoidable circumstances (illness verified by a signed physician's note, participation in intercollegiate athletic events, subpoenas, jury duty, military service, bereavement, or religious observance). A make-up final examination may be scheduled only with the permission of the appropriate Quinlan Assistant or Associate Dean.

If a make-up examination must be given, it is the responsibility of the faculty member to prepare, schedule, and proctor the exam. Limited assistance in proctoring make-up exams may be available through a designated Quinlan administrative assistant. For a student with a documented special testing need, please consult University policy concerning use of the testing center in Sullivan Center at Lake Shore Campus.

Academic Integrity

All members of the Quinlan School shall refrain from academic dishonesty and misconduct in all forms, including plagiarism, cheating, misrepresentation, fabrication, and falsehood. . . Plagiarism or cheating on the part of the student in individual or group academic work or in examination behavior will result minimally in the instructor assigning the grade of "F" for the assignment or examination. In addition, all instances of academic dishonesty must be reported to the chairperson of the department involved.

For further information about expectations for academic integrity and sanctions for violations, consult the complete Quinlan School of Business Honor Code and Statement of Academic Integrity on the Quinlan website:

Please note: From time-to-time, we will choose to spend more time than originally planned on a particular topic, or we may have a guest speaker. Accordingly, this class will occasionally deviate from the course outline above. The instructor reserves the right to make changes as needed to the course syllabus.
