International Management

Spring Semester 2018
Tuesdays and Thursdays 2:30-3:45 PM, CLC 326

Catalog Description and Learning Outcome

Prerequisites: Junior Standing, minimum grade of "C-" in MGMT 201.

This course analyzes the problems of managing in an international marketplace by focusing on cultural differences, political/economic influences, global market factors, and other contingencies with which managers of multinational enterprises must contend.

Outcome: Students will be able to demonstrate an understanding of the major theoretical perspectives and frameworks underlying international management, as well as evaluate and develop international and cross-cultural skills through self-observation and reflection.

Course Overview

This course is designed to improve your international management knowledge and skills by providing information that will enhance your understanding of multinational enterprises and the issues and challenges which managers often confront when operating internationally; such as planning, organizing, communicating, staffing and motivating.
Required Materials

Other required materials: Other class materials available on Sakai. Please check Sakai frequently. In case you need to miss a class, you are fully responsible for getting class notes, handouts and any important information discussed in class.

Course Requirements and Grading Criteria

1. Three Quizzes 30% (10% each)
   - All quizzes are primarily short answer. They will focus on course concepts, terms and cases.

2. Group Paper and Presentation 40% (32% paper; 8% presentation)
   - No late papers will be accepted.
   - Details will be provided early in the semester. Students will form teams and do a country-specific paper and presentation. Two rounds of instructor feedback on the writing and paper content are a key aspect of this paper.

3. Individual Papers/Assignments 15% (Four papers at 5% each; drop lowest)
   - No late papers/assignments will be accepted.
   - Papers assigned throughout the semester.

4. Take Home Final/Reflection Paper 12%
   - No late papers will be accepted.

Quinlan School of Business Policies:

Attendance

Class attendance and participation are fundamental components of learning, so punctual attendance at all classes, for the full class meeting period, is expected of Quinlan students.

Faculty may set participation policies unique to their courses and use class participation as a component of the final grade.

➢ See “Class Engagement”

The student is responsible for any assignments or requirements missed during an absence.

➢ Attendance: It’s my expectation that you attend every class. Please email me in advance if you have a personal or university-related conflict.

➢ Arriving late/leaving early: Please do your best to arrive and leave class on time. However, if you must arrive late/leave early – please do so in a courteous manner.

➢ Technology: Please keep to a minimum and for school-related use.
Make-Up Examinations

Loyola University academic policy provides that tests or examinations may be given during the semester or summer sessions as often as deemed advisable by the instructor. Because Quinlan faculty believe examinations represent a critical component of student learning, required examinations should be taken during the regularly scheduled class period. Make-up examinations are discouraged. Exceptions may be granted only by the faculty member or department chair, and only for unavoidable circumstances (illness verified by a signed physician’s note, participation in intercollegiate athletic events, subpoenas, jury duty, military service, bereavement or religious observance). A make-up final examination may be scheduled only with the permission of the appropriate Quinlan Assistant or Associate Dean.

If a make-up examination must be given, it is the responsibility of the faculty member to prepare, schedule and proctor the exam. The only regular exception is for a student athlete, who may use the testing services of the Athletics Department to complete a make-up examination. For a student with a documented special testing need, please consult University policy concerning use of the testing center in Sullivan Center at Lake Shore Campus.

Academic Integrity

All members of the Quinlan School shall refrain from academic dishonesty and misconduct in all forms, including plagiarism, cheating, misrepresentation, fabrication and falsehood…Plagiarism or cheating on the part of the student in individual or group academic work or in examination behavior will result minimally in the instructor assigning the grade of “F” for the assignment or examination. In addition, all instances of academic dishonesty must be reported to the chairperson of the department involved.
