HOW TO MAKE ROME YOUR HOME

IN ORDER TO APPLY, YOU WILL NEED TO:

1. Talk to an advisor! Students at many universities, including Loyola University Chicago, are required to meet with an advisor prior to being allowed to pursue education abroad.

2. Complete the application on our online portal: www.luc.edu/apply

3. The name and email address of your Recommender. Loyola University Chicago students will name their Academic Advisor.

4. A passport valid for at least 6 months after the end of your desired time abroad (for Fall 2020 applicants, passports should be valid through at least June, 2021). Barring that, a transaction receipt from your passport agency confirming your new or renewed passport can be uploaded for application purposes. Students who upload a receipt will be required to submit a passport before they can enroll in classes.

- Submit a personal statement if your GPA falls below the minimum 2.75 GPA requirement: Students can either email their statement to rome@luc.edu, or can upload the personal statement to their online Status Page after submitting their application. A JFRC recruiter will confirm receipt of your personal statement and contact you about next steps.

APPLICATION DEADLINES

Completed applications are reviewed regularly. Due to the popularity of the JFRC program, visiting students are strongly encouraged to apply as early as their home institution will allow. The application availability and deadlines are as follows:

FOLLOWING APPLICATION REVIEW

Admissions decisions are sent to applicants via e-mail from Loyola University Chicago. Students from partnering universities are responsible for insuring that an official transcript is sent from the home institution to complete their application.

Within two weeks of receiving notification of acceptance via email, a student must submit a non-refundable deposit of $500, payable online through each applicant’s Status Page, to confirm their “Intent to Enroll.” Students whose home institutions are guaranteeing the deposit need only confirm their “Intent to Enroll.” These distinctions will be reflected in the email of acceptance.
