Please note: this is an Engaged Learning course, approved for the Service-Learning category, satisfying the Loyola University Chicago Engaged Learning requirement. All students must complete the service-learning experience and related assignments in order to successfully pass this course.

Course Description

This course provides an introduction to ways in which the Christian churches, and primarily the Roman Catholic Church, understand and enact their identity in relation to the secular world of culture, economics, and politics, both nationally and globally.

This course, through its classroom content and Service Learning engagement, will explore themes of inclusion and belonging, analyzing multicultural, diversity and accessibility discourses, and how they relate to the church.

This course is designed to include five main sections:

- A theological analysis of the nature of the Church and its relationship to the world, with a particular focus on its approach towards the oppressed and marginalized.
- An interdisciplinary exploration of the concepts of multiculturalism, inclusion and belonging. This interdisciplinary contextualization can better inform our theological inquiry and ground it in social and cultural needs.
- An exploration of disability culture and the church’s engagement with it.
- A Service Learning component, which should take at least 20 hours.

The course syllabus is subject to change and changes will be announced accordingly to the class.

Learning Outcomes

On completion of the course students should be able to:

- Analyze and interpret contrasting Christian understandings of the notion of original sin.
- Demonstrate knowledge, with attention to historical development, of the central texts, beliefs, ethical understandings, and practices of at least one religious tradition.
- Reflect on and engage with cultural realities and gain knowledge on the Church’s engagement with them.
- Learn about and reflect on disability culture, the church’s relation with it and the values of encounter and transformation.
Course Material
Assigned material shall be posted and/or linked on the course’s Sakai page.

Attendance Policy
In accordance with the JFRC mission to promote a higher level of academic rigor, all courses adhere to the following absence policy. Prompt attendance, preparation and active participation in course discussions are expected from every student.

- For all classes meeting once a week, students cannot incur more than one unexcused absence.

This course meets once a week, thus a total of one unexcused absence(s) will be permitted. Unexcused absences beyond these will result in 1% lowering of the final course grade, for every absence after the “approved limit”. The collective health of the JFRC is everyone’s responsibility. Do not attend class if you are ill.

Assessment Components

- Participation 10%
- Self-assessment Quiz 30%
- Final Exam 30%
- Service Learning 30%

This course does not include extra credit options.

Please find below a description of the assessment components:

- Participation is demonstrated by good class attendance and active class participation.
- The self-assessment quiz is meant to help students self-assess their knowledge of the first part of the course as well as familiarity with how/where to locate information.
- The final exam is the course’s final course assessment.
- The Service Learning component of the course, which should total at least 20 hours, invites students to learn about who is at the margins of society, the church’s engagement with them, and experience communal transformation through encounter and sharing. More Service Learning details will be shared in class. As part of the Service Learning, students are asked to prepare a minimum of three reflections to be shared in class (verbal sharing should last around five minutes).
