

Jeremy Daley, Office Manager, Student Academic Services

Jeremy Daley serves as the Office Manager for the Division of Student Academic Services. Jeremy joined Loyola University Chicago during the summer of 2016 as Administrative Coordinator for Student Academic Services and New Student Orientation where his previous experience in Business Management allowed for a smooth transition into Higher Education and his role here at Loyola. Jeremy earned his undergraduate degree in Political Science with a concentration in Public Administration from Northern Illinois University and is currently working on his MBA from Loyola University Chicago. Originally from De Kalb, IL, Jeremy traded in the small-town life back in 2009 when he moved to Chicago and immediately fell in love with the city's culture and diversity. He frequently enjoys activities by the lake, playing basketball and visiting the many restaurants the city has to offer.
