

Alpha Sigma Nu

THE HONOR SOCIETY OF JESUIT COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

Fact Sheet

What is Alpha Sigma Nu?

Alpha Sigma Nu is the Honor Society of Jesuit institutions of higher education. Induction to the Society is one of the highest honors awarded at Jesuit institutions. Learn more at www.AlphaSigmaNu.org.

Who is eligible to join?

Juniors, seniors, and graduate students who are in the top 15% of their class and have a demonstrated record of service and loyalty to the Jesuit ideals of education are eligible to apply; 5% of the class is inducted.

Why should I join?

- Recognition by your Jesuit institution of higher education of your achievements
- Lifelong membership in the Society
- Alumni Clubs in 13 cities will welcome you upon graduation. Alpha Sigma Nu Alumni Clubs encourage lifelong commitment to the ΑΣΝ values of scholarship, loyalty, and service; the ideals of Jesuit education; and Ignatian spirituality.
- Federal government employment entrance at the GS-7 ranking for members
- Washington, D.C. internships and scholarship opportunities through The Fund for American Studies, Washington Internship Institute, and the Washington Center for Internships and Academic Seminars.

What is the cost?

Dues are $90 for a lifetime membership. This pays for your certificate, medallion, and official pin/pendant, plus all ΑΣΝ mailings for the rest of your life. There are no annual dues.

Are there networking possibilities? Will membership help with career moves?

ΑΣΝ has over 90,000 members throughout the world. The Alpha Sigma Nu LinkedIn group has over 3,000 members. Alumni can be located in the ΑΣΝ Member Directory online which includes over 45,000 current members. The directory facilitates networking and collegiality with a remarkable group of people from all member Jesuit institutions in the United States, plus two in Canada and one in Korea.

Will this help with graduate or professional school admission?

Membership in Alpha Sigma Nu is a recognized and respected credential. Established in 1915, ΑΣΝ is a full member of the Association of College Honor Societies.
