(B) Quorum shall be constituted by a simple majority of the total membership of the Senate.
(C) At any time during a meeting of the Senate that quorum is not present, the Speaker shall declare the meeting in recess until a quorum is present or the same meeting is adjourned.

§3. Recognition

(A) The Speaker shall recognize a member of the SGLC by their respective title and surname.
(B) A Senator shall await the recognition of the Speaker before speaking during a meeting of the Senate.
(C) A Senator who arrives to a meeting of the Senate after the meeting has been called to order and roll call has been taken, shall be allowed to participate in the meeting only after the Speaker has verbally declared the Senator’s arrival.
(D) If a Senator requires departure before a meeting of the Senate is adjourned, the same Senator shall request personal privilege from the Speaker. The Speaker may grant personal privilege to the same Senator, in which case the Senator shall not be considered truant. If the Senator does not receive personal privilege from the Speaker, the Senator shall be considered truant for the duration of the time that they are not present at the same meeting of the Senate.

§4. Motions

(A) A motion is a proposal by any Senator that the Senate take a certain action.
(B) Motions shall pass by a simple majority of the present Senators at any meeting of the Senate, except where otherwise specified within the Articles of Governance.
(C) After a motion has been presented, the Speaker shall state the motion and open the floor to debate on the same motion.

   i. The Speaker shall recognize the chief proponent of the motion for the first speech in favor of the motion. Then the Speaker shall ask if there is any further debate on the motion.

   ii. Subsequent debate shall follow in a cycle of alternating speeches of negation and speeches of affirmation.

   iii. Each Senator may speak on a motion no more than twice and each speech shall be limited to five minutes.
(D) When there are no further points of debate, the Speaker shall put the motion to a vote.

(E) If the vote on a motion fails or the motion has been denied, the chief proponent of a failed motion shall not propose the same motion again during the same meeting of the Senate. A failed motion may be proposed again by a different Senator.

(F) A motion shall not be allowed if there is already a pending motion before the Senate, with the exception of a motion to amend legislation, a motion to vote by a specified method, or a motion to table legislation or a topic of discussion until a future meeting of the Senate.

(G) The chief proponent of any motion may withdraw their own motion from consideration by the Senate only if the Senate has not yet voted on the same motion. Only the chief proponent shall be allowed to withdraw a motion.

(H) A motion to reconsider an already approved motion shall only be allowed during the meeting of the Senate during which the already approved motion was passed, or during the immediately succeeding meeting of the Senate.

§5. Discussion

(A) The right of each Senator to participate in discussion of any issue, topic, or question pertinent to the undergraduate student body shall not be infringed, except where otherwise provided for within the Articles of Governance.

(B) Any Senator may request that a specific issue, topic, or question be discussed during a particular meeting of the Senate by submitting to the Speaker a request that discussion of the same issue, topic or question be added to the agenda, no less than forty-eight hours prior to the same meeting of the Senate shall be approved only at the discretion of the Speaker.

(C) During discussion of a particular issue, topic, or question, all statements, questions, points of clarification, and points of information shall be relevant to the same issue, topic, or question.

(D) The Speaker shall have the authority to establish parameters for discussion of any particular issue, topic, or question.

(E) Discussion of any particular issue, topic, or question may only cease when there are no further contributions or questions on the particular issue, topic, or question, or after the approval of the Senate by a majority vote of the Senators present at the meeting of the Senate.

(F) Any Senator may motion for an unmoderated caucus during a time in which there is a pending motion to amend legislation or during an emergency meeting.
i. The Speaker shall allow for one speech of affirmation followed by one speech of negation. The chief proponent of the motion shall provide the speech of affirmation for the motion.

ii. A motion for an unmoderated caucus shall pass by a two-thirds majority of Senators present at a meeting of the Senate.

iii. An unmoderated caucus shall only commence upon a successful motion to close the meeting.

iv. The time limit for an unmoderated caucus shall be recommended by the proponent of the motion and shall be subject to approval by the Speaker. An unmoderated caucus shall, under no circumstances, exceed fifteen minutes.

v. The proponent of the motion to enter an unmoderated caucus shall, upon its conclusion, report to the Senate the amendments made to the piece of legislation or the changes made to a statement during the same unmoderated caucus.

vi. An unmoderated caucus shall be limited to occur no more than once per proposed legislation or statement. The second unmoderated caucus shall be an extension of the first and shall not exceed the designated time of the first unmoderated caucus.

§6. Voting

(A) The right of each Senator to vote either in favor of or in opposition to any motion or legislation during any meeting of the Senate at which the same Senator is present shall not be infringed, except where otherwise provided for within the Articles of Governance.

(B) Motions and legislation shall, except where otherwise specified within the Articles of Governance, be determined by a simple majority vote of Senators present at a meeting of the Senate.

(C) A motion or legislative Act or Resolution determined by a simple majority of Senators present shall pass if more than one-half of the Senators present at a meeting of the Senate vote in the affirmative.

(D) A motion or legislative Act or Resolution determined by two-thirds majority of Senators present shall pass if more than two-thirds of the Senators present at a meeting of the Senate vote in the affirmative.

(E) A motion or legislative Act or Resolution determined by a simple majority of the membership of the Senate shall pass if more than one-half of the total membership of the Senate, during a meeting of the Senate, voted in affirmative.

(F) A motion or legislative Act or Resolution determined by two-thirds majority of the membership of the Senate shall pass if more than two-thirds of the total membership of the Senate, during a meeting of the Senate, vote in the affirmative.
(G) A Senator may, at their own discretion, choose to abstain from voting on any motion or legislative Act or Resolution.

(H) The Speaker shall determine the method of voting on any vote except on legislation, which shall be conducted by roll call.

(I) A Senator may propose a motion that the Senate vote using a certain method. If the Speaker has already determined the method of voting for a particular question, a motion to vote using a certain method, passed by a two-thirds majority of Senators present, shall supersede the decision of the Speaker.

(J) Before any vote is conducted, the Speaker shall state the question and announce the method by which the question will be voted upon.

(K) The following methods of voting shall be allowed for any vote during any meeting of the Senate, except when voting on legislation:

   i. A vote by roll call shall be conducted by the Speaker requesting a verbal declaration from each present Senator as to the same Senator’s vote on the particular question. Each Senator shall, upon recognition of the Speaker, declare an affirmative vote, a negative vote, or the respective Senator’s intent to abstain from voting.

   ii. A vote by a show of hands shall be conducted by the Speaker by requesting that each senator raise their hand in order to indicate their vote in favor of or in opposition to the particular question. This vote may also be conducted by any alternative gesture specified by the Speaker.

   iii. A vote by ballot shall be conducted by the Speaker in which each Senator shall write their name and their vote on the particular question on the ballot. The ballots shall be collected by the Speaker and shall be counted by the Attorney General.

§7. Appointments & Nominations

(A) The Senate shall, at the discretion of the Speaker, by motion of the Senate, or in any circumstance wherein it is required by the Articles of Governance, consider and vote on appointees to open positions within or external to the SGLC.

(B) The Speaker shall, prior to the Senate’s consideration of appointments, open the floor for nominations.

(C) An appointment to a Senate Officer position, a Standing Committee, or a Special Committee shall require a verbal nomination from any Senator.

(D) An appointment to an Ad-Hoc Committee or the Election Board shall require a nomination from any member of the SGLC.

(E) An appointment to the Judicial Branch, the Executive Branch, an Auxiliary Officer position, or a non-SGLC position shall require a nomination from the President.
(F) After there are no further nominations for an appointment, each nominee shall be allowed to speak on their own behalf for an amount of time not to exceed two minutes.

(G) The right of each Senator to ask questions pertaining to the qualifications or motives of each nominee for an appointment shall not be infringed.

(H) The Senate shall discuss and vote on nominees for appointment only while the meeting of the Senate is closed to the same nominees and all non-members of the SGLC.

(I) A vote to approve a nomination to a single position for which there is exactly one nominee shall be determined by a simple majority vote of Senators present.

(J) A vote to approve a nomination to a position for which there are multiple nominees shall be determined by a plurality vote of Senators present.

§8. Internal Elections

(A) An internal election shall be held, as specified within the Articles of Governance, to fill vacancies within the Senate.

(B) Elections materials shall be made available one week in advance to an internal election and shall be submitted to the Speaker and Attorney General at least forty-eight hours in advance to the scheduled meeting of the Senate in which the internal elections shall take place.

   i. Elections materials shall include but are not limited to: a petition of candidacy and a statement of candidacy.

   ii. The Speaker shall send the Chief of Staff any election materials distributed to candidates by the SGLC prior to the scheduled meeting of the Senate in which the internal elections shall take place.

(C) The Senate shall conduct an internal election by a method determined by the Speaker and approved by a simple majority vote of the membership of the Senate.

(D) The right of any member of the undergraduate student body to be a candidate for an internal election of the Senate shall not be infringed, except where otherwise provided for within the Articles of Governance, or in the event that the prospective candidate is ineligible for membership within the SGLC.

(E) The right of each candidate for an internal election to provide a speech before the Senate on their own behalf, for an amount of time not to exceed two minutes, shall not be infringed.

(F) With the exception of clarifying questions, each candidate for internal elections shall be asked the same questions and it is up to the Speaker’s discretion how the questions are set.
The Senate shall discuss and vote on candidates for internal elections only while the meeting of the Senate has been closed to the same candidates and all non-members of the SGLC.

§9. Additional Rules & Authority: Any circumstance of parliamentary procedure or authority that is not provided for within the Articles of Governance shall be determined by the Speaker, the Attorney General, and the Chief Justice.

(A) The Senate may override a ruling by the Speaker, Attorney General, and the Chief Justice on parliamentary procedure or authority by a two-thirds majority vote of the Senators present at the meeting of the Senate.

Article 14: The Legislative Process

§1. Legislation Construction and Sponsorship

(A) The right of each Senator to propose legislation, in accordance with the provisions and requirements enumerated within the Articles of Governance, shall not be infringed.

(B) Legislation shall be submitted with a completed cover sheet to the Speaker, the Auxiliary Officers, the President, and the Chief Justice no less than forty-eight hours prior to the scheduled meeting of the Senate at which the legislation shall be introduced.

(C) The Judicial Branch shall maintain and shall provide to each Senator upon request the formatting requirements for legislation.

(D) Each legislative Act or Resolution shall be chiefly sponsored by a maximum of two Senators.

(E) Each legislative Act or Resolution shall be co-sponsored by a minimum of five Senators before the same legislation is introduced to the Senate.

(F) A Senator shall co-sponsor legislation by informing the chief sponsor of the same Senator’s intention to do so.

(G) A Senator shall co-sponsor legislation only if the same Senator approves of the full content, in its present form, of the same legislation.

(H) Each legislative Act shall comprise one or more clauses beginning with the word “Whereas...” followed by one or more clauses beginning with the phrase “Be it enacted...”

(I) Each legislative Resolution shall comprise one or more clauses beginning with the word “Whereas...” followed by one or more clauses beginning with the phrase “Be it resolved...”

(K) Immediately after the vote has concluded, the Speaker shall declare the results of the same vote.
i. Once the results of the vote have been declared by the Speaker, the same piece of legislation shall no longer be in ‘consideration.’

(L) The Speaker shall make any amendments to the legislation that have been passed during the consideration of the same legislation.

i. The Speaker, upon completing the appropriate amendments, shall send the same legislation to the Secretary.

(M) The Secretary shall record the vote tally of the same legislation on the line labeled “to be filed by the Secretary of the Senate” on the cover sheet of the same legislation.

i. The voting tally shall be recorded in the following order: Yes – No – Abstain

ii. Based on the recorded voting tally, the Secretary shall determine if the legislation has passed or failed.

a. A failed piece of legislation shall be sent to the Chief of Staff to be archived as such.
b. A passed piece of legislation shall be sent to the President.

(N) The President shall have the power to either ratify or veto the same legislation.

i. In the case that legislation is vetoed by the President, The President shall, within fourteen days of the original passage of the particular legislative Act or Resolution, present to the Senate the reasons for which the President vetoed the same legislation, and shall provide specific recommendations for improvement.

a. In the case that the same Presidential veto is overridden by the Senate, the Secretary shall send the same legislation to the Chief Justice.
b. In the case that the same Presidential veto is not overridden by the Senate, the Secretary shall send the same legislation, the President’s written rationale for the veto and specific recommendations for improvement to the Chief of Staff to be archived appropriately.

ii. Legislation that has been ratified shall be sent to the Chief Justice.

(O) The Chief Justice shall include the same legislation in the agenda of the subsequent meeting of the Judicial Branch.

i. The Judicial Branch shall exercise judicial review of the constitutionality of the same legislation.

ii. Upon approval of the Judicial Branch, by a simple majority affirmative vote, the same legislation shall be deemed approved.
iii. The following shall take place within forty-eight hours of the Judicial Branch’s approval of the legislation, in the following order:

a. The Chief Justice shall record the Judicial Branch’s vote tally on the cover sheet of the same legislation and the Chief Justice shall sign below the recorded vote tally.

b. The Chief Justice shall send the approved legislation to the Chief Sponsor of the same legislation.

c. The Chief Justice shall amend the Articles accordingly, given that the approved legislation was an act.

ii. The Chief Justice shall send the same legislation to the Chief of Staff to be archived appropriately.

(P) The Chief of Staff shall archive a paper copy of the same legislation in a designated location within the SGLC Office and an electronic copy of the same legislation in PDF format on a hard drive that shall remain within the SGLC Office at all times.

§2. Procedure

(A) Any legislation that has been submitted in accordance with the corresponding provisions enumerated within the Articles of Governance shall be introduced during the New Business & Discussion portion of the agenda at the first meeting of the Senate following the submission of the same legislation.

(B) In order to introduce legislation to the Senate, the Speaker shall announce the title of the legislation and confirm that each present Senator has received the full text of the same legislation.

(C) Upon introduction, the Speaker shall recognize the chief sponsor(s) of the legislation. The chief sponsor or, in the case of multiple chief sponsors, any one or all of the chief sponsors shall stand before the Senate and read the legislation aloud and in full.

   i. Should the measure include a proposal or document, the chief sponsor(s) is not required to read aloud the proposal or document but may do so at the discretion of the Speaker.

(D) Upon completion of the first reading, the Speaker shall allow questions on the content of the legislation. Only the chief sponsor or, in the case of multiple chief sponsors, any one of the chief sponsors shall answer questions on the legislation, but may, with the consent of the Speaker, defer to one or more of the same legislation’s chief sponsors or co-sponsors.

(E) When there are no further questions on the content of the legislation, the Speaker shall table the same legislation until the immediately subsequent meeting of the Senate. This action shall be subject to a motion to override. A successful motion to override the tabling of legislation upon completion of the first reading shall be determined by a five-sixths majority of the present membership of the Senate.

(F) During the immediately subsequent meeting of the Senate, the legislation shall be revisited during the Unfinished Business portion of the agenda. The Speaker shall then open the floor for debate on the legislation. The Speaker shall first recognize the chief sponsor or, in the case of multiple chief sponsors, any one of the chief sponsors for the first speech of affirmation in favor of the same legislation.

(G) The Speaker shall allow only questions for the chief sponsor(s), which shall pertain to the content of the legislation or of the first speech of affirmation. At such time that there are no further questions for the chief sponsor(s), the Speaker shall allow debate on the legislation, which shall comprise a repeating cycle of one speech of negation followed by one speech of affirmation. Only Senators shall be allowed to participate in debate.

i. Each speech shall be limited to ten minutes.
ii. A Senator may propose a motion to extend the limits of speeches.
iii. Each Senator shall offer no more than two speeches on the particular legislation during the same meeting of the Senate.

(H) Debate on legislation shall conclude upon a successful motion to the original question, or a successful motion to table the legislation. The chief sponsor(s) of the same legislation shall not propose a motion to the original question. A successful motion to the original question shall be determined by a two-thirds majority vote of Senators present.

(I) Immediately upon a successful motion to the original question, the Speaker shall put the question to a vote.

(J) The Speaker shall declare to the Senate the title of the measure and the method of voting.

(K) Immediately after the vote has concluded, the Speaker shall declare the results of the same vote.

§3. Amendments

(A) At any time during the consideration of a legislative Act or Resolution, any Senator may propose a motion to amend to the same legislation.

(B) Legislation shall be amended only by a successful motion to amend the same legislation.

§4. Tabling of Legislation

(A) At any time during consideration of a legislative Act or Resolution, any Senator may propose a motion to table the same legislation until a future meeting. A motion to table legislation shall pass by a two-thirds majority vote of Senators present.
(B) After the first presentation of a legislative Act or Resolution, the same legislation shall be tabled until the next meeting of the Senate, except where otherwise provided for within the Articles of Governance.

(C) The same legislation shall not be tabled more than twice.

§5. Updating the Articles of Governance

(A) After a successful passage of legislation to amend the Articles of Governance, the Judicial Branch shall make available the official version of the Articles of Governance to the Chief Sponsor(s) of exactly one legislation at a time.

(B) The Chief Sponsor(s) shall be charged with the responsibility of incorporating the amendments outlined in the passed legislation onto the official version of the Articles of Governance. In the case where the Chief Sponsor(s) are unable to do so, the cosponsors shall be charged with this responsibility.

(C) Amendments to the official version of the Articles of Governance shall be subject to Judicial approval and, once successful, it shall be reported in the Judicial Report.

(D) The Governance committee of each term may request a copy of the document from the Judicial branch, but may only make changes to the official document once all legislation is passed.

(E) Changes to the Articles of Governance shall come into effect the following term of the SGLC.

CHAPTER 4: The Executive Branch

Article 15: Membership and Duties of the Executive Branch

§1. Executive Authority: All executive authority shall be vested in the Executive Branch. The Executive Branch shall have the duty and power to carry out actions and implement changes as legislated by the Senate.

§2. Responsibilities

(A) Each member of the Executive Branch shall submit weekly reports to the Secretary and the President regarding the execution of their responsibilities, allocated duties, and any other updates relevant to the SGLC.

(B) Each member of the Executive Branch shall attend all scheduled meetings of the Senate.

   i. Absences shall only be excused by the approval of the President.

§3. Appointment

(A) Non-elected Executive Branch officers and other associated Presidential appointments shall be filled through an application and nomination process. After conferring with the Vice President, the President shall, from a pool of applicants, nominate to the Senate one candidate for each vacant Executive Branch position, which the Senate shall confirm or reject by a simple majority vote.

i. An application for any vacant Presidentially appointed position shall be made to the entire undergraduate student body no less than one week before the nominee is selected.

ii. The Advisor(s) shall be consulted before appointment nominees are selected to ensure eligibility based on academic performance and student conduct within the university.

iii. All submitted applications shall be made available to the members of the Senate no less than forty-eight hours prior to the scheduled meeting of the Senate in which the nominee is presented by submission to the Secretary for inclusion in the distribution of meeting agendas, pertinent legislation, committee reports, and other appropriate documentation.

§4. The President

(A) The President shall be the chairperson of the Executive Branch.

(B) As the elected undergraduate student body President, the President shall have the executive power and responsibility for the effective and efficient administration of the SGLC.

(C) The President may establish administrative procedures or job descriptions which they deem necessary for the effective and efficient administration of the SGLC.

(D) The President shall, after consulting with the Vice President, have the authority to nominate student representatives to the Board of Trustees subcommittees and to the University Senate. These nominations shall take effect only upon approval by the Senate, which shall be determined by a simple majority of the membership of the Senate.

   i. Nominees shall be subject to a disciplinary and academic audit by the Division of Student Development.

(E) The President shall, after consulting with the Vice President, nominate individuals to any vacant appointee positions. These nominations shall take effect only upon approval by the Senate, which shall be determined by a simple majority of the membership of the Senate.

(F) The President shall, after consulting with the Vice President, nominate Associate Justices to the Judicial Branch. These nominations shall take effect only upon approval by the Senate, which shall be determined by a simple majority of the membership of the Senate.

(G) The President shall have the authority to issue Executive Orders. All Executive Orders shall be consistent with the Articles of Governance and shall stand permanent until the same Executive Order is changed by legislation of the Senate or a subsequent Executive Order. The purpose of an Executive Order shall be one or more of the following:

i. To spend money from the Executive Discretionary Fund.
ii. To establish an Executive Branch Position.
iii. To establish an administrative procedure or job description.

(H) The President shall have the authority to ratify legislation of the Senate.

i. Ratification of legislation shall be indicated by the signature of the President on the line labeled “Signed by the President of the Student Government of Loyola Chicago” of the same legislation.

(I) The President shall have the power to veto legislation of the Senate, in part or in full.
The President shall return vetoed legislation to the Senate with a written statement detailing the President’s rationale for vetoing the same legislation, and specific recommendations for improvement.

i. If the President fails to ratify legislation within thirteen days of its approval by the Senate, the same legislation shall be deemed vetoed.

ii. The President shall, within fourteen days of the original passage of a particular legislative Act or Resolution, present to the Senate the reasons for which the President vetoed the same legislation, and shall provide specific recommendations for improvement.

(J) The President shall attend all meetings of the Senate and Executive Branch.

(K) The President shall be responsible for compiling a written report on activities and initiatives of the Executive Branch and submitting the same report to the Secretary no less than forty-eight hours prior to each scheduled meeting of the Senate.

(L) The President shall have the authority to create and fill positions that are necessary and proper to the function of the Executive Branch. These positions shall take effect only upon approval by the Senate, which shall be determined by a simple majority vote of the membership of Senate.

(M) The President shall have the authority to discharge a Presidentially appointed member from the Executive Branch. The decision to discharge an Executive Branch member shall take effect only upon approval by the Senate, which shall be determined by a two-thirds majority vote of the membership of the Senate.

§5. Vice President

(A) The Vice President shall assist the President in maintaining the efficient operation of the Executive Branch.

(B) The Vice President may serve as an Acting President at the written request of the President.
(C) The Vice President shall act as the liaison between the University Senate and the SGLC and shall make monthly reports to the Senate on the activities of University Senate which shall be sent to the Secretary and distributed to the Senate.

(D) The Vice President shall oversee the activities of Presidential appointees.

(E) The Vice President shall report once per semester to the SGLC on the business of the University Board of Trustees which shall be sent to the Secretary and distributed to the Senate.

(F) The Vice President shall serve as the liaison between the undergraduate student body of Loyola University Chicago and surrounding neighborhood community.

§6. Chief of Staff

(A) The Chief of Staff shall be responsible for fostering the internal community, facilitating, creating visibility and accessibility initiatives for the SGLC, and providing resources and support for the membership of the SGLC.

   i. The Chief of Staff shall maintain and update the SGLC internal Facebook page and its membership.

   ii. The Chief of Staff shall distribute a newsletter pertaining to the SGLC to all members of the SGLC on a weekly basis.

(B) The Chief of Staff shall be charged with the maintenance and management of the SGLC Office.

(C) The Chief of Staff shall be charged with the archiving of all materials pertaining to the SGLC, including but not limited to passed legislation, failed legislation, vetoed legislation and the rationale for the same veto, minutes of Senate and Executive Committee meetings, bylaws, transition memoranda, resignation letters, updated budgets including the expenditures of the SGLC, any election materials distributed to candidates by the Election Board or the Speaker from each election cycle, judicial opinions, censure complaints, statements released on behalf of the SGLC and/or on behalf of a position of the SGLC, committee reports, executive reports, and judicial reports.

   i. These materials pertaining to the SGLC shall be archived both in paper form in a designated location within the SGLC Office and electronically in PDF format on a hard drive that shall remain within the SGLC Office at all times.

(D) The Chief of Staff shall be charged with maintaining an updated document that includes the contact information for all Recognized Student Organizations and an attendance record of which Recognized Student Organizations have been visited by each Senator.

§7. Chief Financial Officer

(A) The Chief Financial Officer, hereafter referred to as the CFO, shall be charged with the maintenance and management of the Budget of the SGLC.
i. The CFO shall send an updated budget which shall include the expenditures of the SGLC to the Chief of Staff to be archived appropriately. This correspondence will take place at the end of the term.

(B) The CFO shall deliver a report to the Senate concerning the transactions and balances of the SGLC financial accounts at each scheduled meeting of the Senate.

(C) The CFO shall work with the office of Student Activities and Greek Affairs to complete quarterly sweeps of Registered Student Organization accounts to reclaim any allocated and unused funds, so that the same funds may be reallocated by the Senate.

(D) The CFO shall act as an advisor to the Budget Committee.

(E) The CFO shall act as an advisor to the Allocations Committee.

i. The chairperson of the Allocations Committee and the CFO shall decide, at the beginning of each term, what role the CFO will play in the proceedings of the Allocations Committee for the given term.

ii. Only in the event of a tie shall the CFO have a vote in the Allocations Committee.

§8. Chief Communications Officer

(A) The Chief Communications Officer, hereafter referred to as the CCO, shall be responsible for communicating the SGLC agenda, actions, and initiatives to the undergraduate student body as well as the dissemination of public statements.

(B) The CCO shall be responsible for maintaining and updating the SGLC website with weekly meeting minutes, pending legislation, events, and updated contact information for all SGLC members.

i. The CCO shall, once per semester, publish a newsletter including reports on the progress of the SGLC from the Speaker, the Chief Justice, the CCO, the CFO, the Chief Sustainability Officer, the Chief Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion Officer, the Vice President, and the President.

(C) The CCO shall be charged with the professional and punctual production and publication of a monthly update detailing the activities and initiatives of the SGLC to the undergraduate student body.

§9. Associate Communications Officers

(A) There shall be exactly two Associate Communications Officers.

(B) The Associate Communications Officers shall assist the CCO with the duties and responsibilities including but not limited to the promotion of the SGLC brand, the promotion and publication of the SGLC initiatives, releasing public statements, and the engagement with the undergraduate student body.
(C) The responsibilities of the Associate Communications Officers shall be delegated at the discretion of the Chief Communications Officer.

§10. Chief Sustainability Officer

(A) For the purposes of the Chief Sustainability Officer, hereafter referred to as the CSO, and the SGLC, sustainability is defined as: “Development that meets the needs of the present without compromising the ability of future generations to meet their own needs.”

(B) The CSO shall be responsible for coordinating activities and programs that support and promote campus sustainability.

(C) The CSO shall be responsible for informing the SGLC on all issues related to campus environment and sustainability.

(D) The CSO shall serve as the advisor to the President on environmental and sustainability policy.

(E) The CSO shall be responsible for advising and making recommendations as they relate to the sustainability of the SGLC’s initiatives.

(F) The CSO shall be responsible for any further duties pertaining to sustainability assigned by the President.

§11. The Speaker of the Senate

(A) The Speaker shall be the primary representative of the Senate to the Executive Branch.

(B) The Speaker shall attend all Executive Branch meetings.

(C) The Speaker shall not have the power to vote within the Executive Branch.

(D) The Speaker shall give reports of the actions of the Senate to the Executive Branch.

(E) Responsibilities of the Speaker within the Executive Branch shall be determined in a meeting held between the President and the Speaker.

§12. Chief Justice

(A) The Chief Justice shall serve as the primary judicial advisor to the Executive Branch.

(B) The Chief Justice shall attend all scheduled meetings of the Senate.

(C) The Chief Justice shall not have the power to vote within the Executive Branch.

(D) Responsibilities of the Chief Justice within the Executive Branch shall be determined in a meeting held between the President and the Chief Justice.

§13. Chief Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion Officer
The Chief Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion Officer, hereafter referred to as the CEDIO, shall be charged with the maintenance of the students’ concerns regarding diversity and inclusion across the undergraduate campus.

The CEDIO shall work directly with the Student Diversity and Multicultural Affairs office, hereafter referred to as SDMA, to bring pertinent reports to Senate.

The CEDIO shall attend monthly Executive Council on Diversity and Inclusion meetings.

The CEDIO shall attend Dreamer Committee meetings as they are scheduled.

The CEDIO shall act as an advisor to the Justice Committee.

i. The chairperson of the Justice Committee and the CEDIO shall determine, at the beginning of each term, what role the CEDIO will play in the Justice Committee proceedings for the given term.

ii. Only in the event of a tie shall the CEDIO have a vote in the Justice Committee.

§14. Order of Succession

(A) In the event that the position of President is vacant, the Vice President shall become the President.

(B) If by resignation or removal from office, there is neither a President nor Vice President to discharge the powers and duties of the office of the President, then the Speaker shall, upon their resignation from the Senate, become the President.

(C) If, at the time when under subsection (A) of this section there is no Speaker of the Senate, then the Chief Justice shall, upon their resignation from the Judicial Branch, become the President.

(D) If by resignation or removal from office, the officers listed in subsections (B) and (C) are exhausted, an emergency internal election shall be called to fill all vacant positions within the Order of Succession, as determined by the Advisor(s).

(E) An individual serving as the President under the circumstances provided for within this section shall continue to do so until the conclusion of the term.

(F) In the event that the position of Vice President is vacant, the Speaker shall, upon their resignation of the Senate, become Vice President.

(G) An individual serving as the Vice President under the circumstances provided for within this section shall continue to do so until the conclusion of the term.
(H) In the event that all of the officers listed in subsections (B) and (F) are exhausted, an emergency internal election shall be held to the discretion of the Advisor(s) and the Senate.

Article 16: Transition, Training, and In-service

§1. Oversight: The President, Vice President, Attorney General, Chief of Staff, and Speaker shall be responsible for overseeing the transition and training of members of the SGLC at the beginning of each term, after internal elections take place, and during each term.

§2. Transition Memoranda: The outgoing leadership of the SGLC shall, at the conclusion of each term, produce and deliver to the incoming membership of the SGLC transition memoranda. This shall be facilitated by the Attorney General.

(A) Transition memoranda shall include, at minimum:

i. An overview of the scope and priorities of the position and/or Committee.

ii. The status of any current projects or initiatives

(B) The Attorney General shall, no later than the second regularly-scheduled meeting of the Senate during each Spring semester, disseminate the content and formatting requirements for transition memoranda.

(C) Members holding each of the following positions shall be responsible for composing transition memoranda:

   i. Each voting and non-voting member of the Executive Branch

   ii. The chairperson of each standing, special, and Ad-Hoc Committee

(D) The Vice President shall compose transition memoranda for incoming Board of Trustees and University Senate appointees.

(E) The Speaker shall compose transition memoranda for incoming Senators.

§3. The SGLC Retreat: The President, Vice President, Attorney General, Chief of Staff, Speaker, and SGLC Advisor(s) shall be responsible for the planning and execution of the SGLC Retreat.

(A) The SGLC Retreat shall accomplish the following:

   i. Train members on parliamentary procedure and the Articles of Governance

   ii. Establish goals and initiatives for the current term

   iii. Foster community within the SGLC

(B) The SGLC Retreat shall take place each Fall semester following the completion of the Fall Election.

(C) Each current member of the SGLC shall attend the SGLC retreat, unless the same member has received an excusal from the President.
(D) The President shall confer with the Speaker, the Chief Justice, and the Attorney General regarding the planning and execution of the SGLC Retreat.

(E) The President shall, prior to the conclusion of the Fall semester of the same President’s term, reserve space for the SGLC Retreat for the succeeding membership of the SGLC.

§4. The Spring In-service: The President, Vice President, Attorney General, Chief of Staff, and Speaker shall be responsible for the planning and execution of the Spring In-service.

(A) The Spring In-service shall accomplish the following:

   i. Train members on parliamentary procedure and the Articles of Governance

   ii. Reflect upon and, if necessary, re-establish goals and initiatives for the current term

   iii. Foster community within the SGLC

(B) The Spring In-service shall take place no later than the third regularly scheduled meeting of the Senate during each Spring semester.

(C) Each current member of the SGLC shall attend the Spring In-service, unless the same member has received an excusal from the President.

   CHAPTER 5: The Judicial Branch

Article 17: Membership and Duties of the Judicial Branch

§1. Judicial Authority: All authority of judicial review and oversight shall be vested in the Judicial Branch.

§2. Responsibilities and Duties: The Judicial Branch shall be responsible for hearing and issuing decisions on complaints filed by the Attorney General. Such complaints shall include, but are not limited to, alleged violations of the Articles of Governance or subsidiary bylaws.

   (A) The Judicial Branch shall hear all cases involving the proper and efficient administration of the SGLC brought before them by the Attorney General.

   (B) The Judicial Branch shall be charged with maintaining the official version of the Articles of Governance.

   (C) The Judicial Branch shall provide to the Chairs, at the beginning of each term or upon activation of a committee, the content and formatting requirements for committee and board bylaws.

   (D) Any vote of the Judicial Branch shall pass by an affirmative simple majority vote of the members in attendance.

      i. Recusals shall be allowed in the case of a conflict of interest. Abstentions shall not be permitted.
ii. In the event that a piece of legislation is not passed by the Judicial Branch, that same piece of legislation shall be returned to the Senate and placed under Unfinished Business on the agenda of a scheduled meeting of the Senate immediately following the release of Judicial opinion(s) for the opportunity for amendments.

iii. The returning of legislation to the Senate shall be limited to occurring only once per piece of legislation.

§3. Judicial Review: The SGLC Judicial Branch shall have the power of Judicial Review over the Articles of Governance.

   (A) The Judicial Branch shall maintain the Articles of Governance, committee bylaws, and all other governing and operational documents internal to the SGLC.

   (B) The Judicial Branch shall have the authority to exercise judicial review of the constitutionality of any legislation passed by the Senate or Executive Order issued by the President.

§4. Chief Justice

   (A) The Chief Justice shall preside over all meetings of the Judicial Branch.

      i. The Chief Justice shall send all censure complaints heard by the Judicial Branch, concurring and dissenting opinions, approved committee bylaws, and legislation that is and is not approved by a simple majority affirmative vote to the Chief of Staff to be archived appropriately

   (B) The Chief Justice, or their designee, shall provide a Judicial Branch Report, which shall include the activities and decisions of the Judicial Branch, to the Senate no later than one week after the Judicial Branch has exercised any ruling.

   (C) The Chief Justice shall be elected by the undergraduate student body.

§5. Associate Justices

   (A) Four Associate Justices shall serve on the Judicial Branch.

   (B) Each Associate Justice shall have the right to author a concurring or dissenting opinion regarding a case heard by the Judicial Branch.

   (C) Each Associate Justice shall be appointed by the President.

§6. Chief Justice Pro Tempore: The Chief Justice Pro Tempore shall be a current Associate Justice appointed by the Chief Justice and approved by a simple majority of the membership of the Judicial Branch.

   (A) The Chief Justice Pro Tempore shall assist the Chief Justice in their duties and shall assume the role of Chief Justice in the event of the Chief Justice’s absence or dismissal.

   (B) The Chief Justice Pro Tempore shall carry out all the responsibilities of an Associate Justice with no additional authority except in the case of the absence or dismissal of the Chief Justice, in which case the Chief Justice Pro Tempore shall become the Chief Justice, until the return of the Chief Justice or, in the case of dismissal, for the duration of the term.

§7. Meetings & Agenda

(A) The Judicial Branch shall meet weekly at a time and location determined by the Chief Justice.

(B) Each Associate Justice and the Chief Justice shall attend each scheduled meeting of the Judicial Branch. No Justice shall accrue more than four absences per term.

(C) Quorum for the Judicial Branch requires attendance of the Chief Justice and no fewer than two Associate Justices.

(D) All meetings of the Judicial Branch are closed to the public, except when approved by a simple majority vote of the membership of the Judicial Branch.

(E) Meetings shall adhere to the following agenda.

   i. Call to order and roll call.

   ii. Review pending cases.

   iii. Review passed legislation.

   iv. Hold hearings.

(F) In addition to weekly meetings, the Judicial Branch shall also hold office hours at least once a week for members of the SGLC.

§8. Hearings: Hearings of the Judicial Branch shall adhere to the following agenda:

(A) Pre-hearing motions

(B) Introductory statements (for a length of time not to exceed five minutes each)

   i. Plaintiff

   ii. Defendant

(C) Presentation of Plaintiff’s case (for a length of time not to exceed fifteen minutes)

(D) Presentation of Defendant’s case (for a length of time not to exceed fifteen minutes)

(E) Closing arguments (for a length of time not to exceed five minutes each)

   i. Plaintiff

   ii. Defendant

§9. Justice Removal: Any member of the Judicial Branch shall, upon a two-thirds majority vote of the membership of the Senate, be removed from office.
§10. Judicial Report: A complete record of each meeting shall be included in a Judicial Branch Report.

(A) The Judicial Branch Report shall include, but is not limited to: the status of legislation passed by the Senate and Judicial Branch rulings on complaints filed by the Attorney General, legislation of the Senate, and Executive Orders.

(B) The Judicial Report shall be disseminated to the membership of the SGLC within one week after each meeting of the Judicial Branch.

i. The Chief Justice shall be responsible for submitting the Judicial Branch Report to the Secretary no less than forty-eight hours prior to each scheduled meeting of the Senate.

Article 18: Censure, Misconduct, & Resignations

§1. Preponderance of the Evidence Standard: The Judicial Branch shall judge any and all cases of misconduct using the Preponderance of the Evidence Standard.

(A) The Preponderance of the Evidence Standard shall be defined as the standard that is met when enough evidence is presented by the plaintiff to make it more likely than not that the defendant is guilty of a violation or violations of the Articles of Governance or any subsidiary bylaws.

§2. Censure: A censure shall be defined as a judicial reprimand of any member of the SGLC. Censures shall be enacted through the following process:

(A) Any member of the Loyola University of Chicago community may file a complaint, which shall outline a specific violation of the Articles of Governance by a specific individual, with the Attorney General.

(B) The Attorney General shall conduct an investigation of all relevant parties. Upon investigation, the Attorney General shall, at their discretion, initiate a censure case with the Judicial Branch. A censure case shall be filed no less than seventy-two hours prior to the Judicial Branch meeting in which the censure case shall be heard.

(C) The Attorney General shall notify the defendant no less than thirty-six hours prior to the Judicial Branch meeting at which the same defendant’s case shall be heard.

(D) The Attorney General shall present the complaint on behalf of the SGLC, and the defendant shall have the right to defend themselves. If the complaint is sustained, the Chief Justice shall present the ruling at the next scheduled meeting of the Senate.

(E) The recipient of a censure may choose to appeal their censure to the Judicial Branch on the grounds that no rule was, in fact, violated, or if there were mitigating factors, which shall be determined by the Judicial Branch after the Judicial Branch has announced the censure to the Senate.

(F) The Judicial Branch shall have the discretion to issue multiple censures.
In the event that a complaint has been filed against the Attorney General, the Chief Justice shall, for the duration of the investigation and Judicial Branch consideration of the same complaint, act as the Attorney General.

In the event that a complaint has been filed against a member of the Judicial Branch, the Senate shall, at the discretion of the Attorney General, conduct a hearing. The hearing shall be conducted in a manner determined by the Speaker and approved by a simple majority vote of the membership of the Senate. The Senate shall have the authority to award one or more censures to a member of the Judicial Branch through the aforementioned process upon a two-thirds majority vote of the membership of the Senate.

§3. Impeachment: Grounds for impeachment shall consist of failure to fulfill the duties of a member’s position as enumerated in the Articles of Governance, or failure to conduct oneself in a manner befitting a member of the SGLC.

Any member of the SGLC may, upon recognition of the Speaker, at any meeting of the Senate, propose that the Senate vote on the impeachment of any other member.

The Senate may, upon a two-thirds majority vote of its membership, impeach any member of the SGLC.

The Senate shall retain the exclusive authority to impeach a member of the SGLC.

At such time that any member accrues three censures, the Senate shall, at the immediately following meeting of the Senate, vote on whether or not to impeach the same member.

At such time that a member is impeached, the same member shall be stripped of all SGLC privileges, including but not limited to the ability to vote within any body of the SGLC. The Attorney General shall at that time compose articles of impeachment detailing the manner in which the impeached member has allegedly violated the Articles of Governance or any subsidiary bylaws of the SGLC.

Articles of impeachment shall be submitted to each member of the SGLC.

The Judicial Branch shall review the articles of impeachment and shall issue a ruling on whether or not the articles of impeachment are consistent with the rules, provisions, and procedures enumerated within the Articles of Governance.

Should the Judicial Branch uphold any articles of impeachment, the impeached member shall be removed from office and shall be ineligible for any SGLC elected or appointed position for the remainder of the term.

Any individual who has been removed from office shall retain the right to submit an appeal to the Senate. The Senate may, by a three-fourths majority vote of its membership, overturn articles of impeachment that have been sustained by the Judicial Branch. Such appeals shall be conducted in a manner to be determined by the Speaker and approved by a simple majority vote of the membership of the Senate.
At any time that the Senate considers the impeachment of the Attorney General the Chief Justice shall, for the duration of the proceedings against the Attorney General, act as Attorney General, and shall abstain from voting within the Judicial Branch.

§4. Rights of the Accused:

(A) The accused shall, in any judicial or disciplinary proceeding provided for within the Articles of Governance, be entitled to the following:

i. To have prior knowledge of all the charges and have the charges explained clearly and fully at every point during the hearing.

ii. To be informed of the names of the witnesses to testify against them.

iii. To hear all testimony and see all written statements concerning the charges.

iv. To refute statements made by witnesses and question them.

v. To have a fair and prompt hearing.

vi. To be notified promptly of the results of the hearing.

vii. The opportunity to present a counter claim to the court, which will be handled as an original petition.

§5. Resignations: Any member of the SGLC shall at any time be allowed to resign from their respective position. A resignation shall be deemed official upon the submission, in writing, of a statement confirming the same member’s intent to resign from the SGLC. Letters of resignation shall be submitted to the Chief Justice, President, the Attorney General, the Secretary, and the Speaker.

(A) Should any member choose to resign from the SGLC, the same member shall require approval from the Judicial Branch before being considered for any position within the SGLC, whether elected or appointed, until the conclusion of the term from which the same member resigned.

CHAPTER 6: Non-Voting Members and Advisors

Article 19: Auxiliary Officers

§1. Appointment:

(A) Auxiliary Officers shall be appointed through an application process conducted by the Executive Branch. Appointments shall take effect only upon approval by the Senate, determined by a simple majority vote of senators present at any scheduled meeting of the Senate.

(B) The Executive Branch may appoint multiple candidates to be considered by the Senate for an Auxiliary Officer position.
(C) The Senate shall approve a maximum of one candidate each to each of the Auxiliary Officer positions.

(D) If an Auxiliary Officer position becomes vacant as a result of resignation or impeachment, the Executive Branch shall create and publish a new application within a week of the vacancy to ensure that the position be filled as soon as possible in accordance with the provisions enumerated within this section.

§2. Powers & Responsibilities:

(A) Auxiliary Officers shall not be allowed to vote within the SGLC, unless stated otherwise within the Articles of Governance.

(B) Auxiliary Officers shall possess any and all rights, powers, responsibilities, and obligations afforded to each and every member of the SGLC, as stated within the Articles of Governance.

§3. The Secretary

(A) The Secretary shall attend all meetings of the Senate and the Executive Branch.

(B) The Secretary shall be responsible for minute-taking and record-keeping for the Senate and the Executive Branch.

(C) The Secretary shall be responsible for distribution of meeting agendas, pertinent legislation, committee reports and other appropriate documentation to all members of the SGLC forty-two hours prior to each scheduled meeting of the Senate.

(D) The Secretary shall be responsible for distribution of meeting minutes from each meeting of the Senate to all members of the SGLC no later than forty-eight hours following the adjournment of the same meeting.

(E) The Secretary shall be responsible for distribution of meeting minutes from each meeting of the Executive Branch to all invited members no later than forty-eight hours following the adjournment of the same meeting.

(F) The Secretary shall coordinate with the CCO to ensure that all meeting agendas, pertinent legislation, meeting minutes, committee reports, and appropriate documentation are published appropriately as otherwise stated within the Articles of Governance.

(G) In the event that the Secretary is not present at any meeting of the Senate or the Executive Committee, the respective body shall elect from its membership an individual to assume the responsibilities of the Secretary for the duration of the meeting from which the Secretary will be absent.

§4. The Attorney General

(A) The Attorney General shall attend all scheduled meetings of the Senate.
(B) The Attorney General shall be responsible for investigation and enforcement of any and all instances worthy of censure or impeachment in accordance with the provisions enumerated within the Articles of Governance.

(C) The Attorney General shall act as an advisor to the Governance Committee.

(D) The Attorney General shall oversee the entire succession process.

   i. The Attorney General shall send the Chief of Staff all final transition memoranda to be archived appropriately.

§1. Powers and Responsibilities

   (A) Advisory Liaisons are not members of the SGLC, and therefore shall not be allowed to vote within the SGLC.

§2. The Advisor(s)

   (A) The Advisor(s) shall be a member of the Loyola University Chicago administration, staff, or faculty.

   (B) The Advisor(s) shall be appointed by the Division of Student Development.

   (C) At the discretion of the Division of Student Development, there may be a maximum of two Advisors at any given time.

   (D) The Advisor(s) shall inform SGLC discussion and advise the SGLC on matters including but not limited to adherence to Loyola University Chicago’s mission and identity.

§3. The Chaplain

   (A) The Chaplain shall be appointed by the Department of Campus Ministry.

   (B) The Chaplain shall inform SGLC discussion and encourage reflection on purpose and adherence to Loyola University Chicago’s mission and identity.

   (C) The Chaplain shall perform an examen at scheduled meetings of the Senate prior to the Speaker calling the meeting to order.

   (D) Every month, the Chaplain shall invite a different Jesuit to speak at a scheduled meeting of the Senate.

§4 Arrupe College Student Liaison

   (A) The Arrupe College Student Liaison, hereafter referred to as Arrupe Liaison, shall be an ex-officio position to be served by the Vice President of the Student Government of Arrupe College. The Arrupe Liaison shall be charged with the responsibility of informing the SGLC on matters relevant to the Arrupe College community.
(B) The Arrupe Liaison shall serve as an advisor to the Executive Branch.

CHAPTER 7: The Ethics Code

Article 21: Ethical Standards

§1. Responsibility: All members and appointees of the SGLC shall adhere to the ethical standards detailed within this Article.

§2. Respect for One’s Self:

(A) Respect for One’s Self shall be defined as:

i. The embodiment of cura personalis, which encompasses care of the whole person and suggests individualized attention to the needs of others and one’s self; distinct respect for unique circumstances and concerns; and appropriate appreciation for singular gifts and insights.

(C) The Election Board shall, during the Campaign Period for each Spring Election, organize, advertise, and host a public election rally at a time and location of their choice, during which any and all candidates shall be allowed to speak on behalf of their own candidacy.

(D) The Election Board shall, during the Campaign Period for each Spring Election, organize, advertise, and host a minimum of two Presidential debates and a minimum of one Vice Presidential debate.
i. All debates shall be video-recorded and made available to the public.

ii. A minimum of one Presidential debate shall be made available to the public via live video stream.

(E) Candidates and their agents shall provide only factual and verifiable information regarding that candidate’s qualifications for candidacy.

(F) Candidates and their agents shall not engage in acts of libel or slander against any other candidate.

(G) Candidates and their agents shall not engage in acts of libel or slander against the SGLC or Loyola University Chicago.

(H) Candidates shall be subject to the following spending restrictions:
   i. Candidates for the position of President, Vice President, or Chief Justice shall not spend more than a total of $100 on their respective or combined campaign.
   ii. Candidates for the position of Representative shall not spend more than $50 on their respective campaign.

(I) The Election Board shall provide printing funds to each candidate in an amount equal to one-fourth of each respective candidate’s spending restriction. These printing funds shall be supplemental to the candidate’s spending restriction.

(J) Candidates shall submit to the Election Board receipts for all purchases of campaign materials.

(K) All campaign materials shall be submitted to the Election Board for approval prior to their use, publication, or dissemination.

(L) Candidates and their agents shall be prohibited from removing, damaging, destroying, defacing, falsifying, forging, and concealing the campaign materials of other candidates.

(M) Candidates for the positions of President and Vice President shall run as a ticket. Each ticket shall include exactly one Presidential candidate and exactly one Vice Presidential candidate.

(N) Candidates, with the exception of Presidential and Vice Presidential candidates, shall be prohibited from running as a ticket or campaigning on behalf of more than one candidate.

(O) Candidates and their agents shall be prohibited from campaigning door-to-door in residence halls.

(P) The Election Board shall, prior to the beginning of the Campaign Period, produce and disseminate to all candidates the guidelines for posting of campaign materials in each Loyola University Chicago building.
The Election Board shall be the primary party that a candidate contacts with any concerns or complaints to be addressed.

§6. Endorsements: Any Registered Student Organization may publicly endorse one or more candidates.

(A) Endorsement of a candidate shall provide a Registered Student Organization the rights, responsibilities, and restrictions of acting as an agent for the respective candidate for the duration of the Campaign Period. No Registered Student Organization may act as an agent for, or publicly support, any candidate unless that Registered Student Organization has endorsed that candidate.

(B) A Registered Student Organization shall endorse a candidate only after submitting a letter written and signed by the President of the same Registered Student Organization.

(C) Registered Student Organizations that have endorsed a candidate shall be subject to a spending restriction equal to one-half of the spending restriction of the candidate. The spending restriction of Registered Student Organizations shall be supplemental to the candidate spending restriction of the candidate, and vice-versa.

(D) Registered Student Organizations that have endorsed a candidate shall submit to the Election Board receipts for all purchases of campaign materials.

§7. The Ballot: The ballot for each Election of the SGLC shall be made available to all undergraduate students of Loyola University Chicago for the duration of the Voting Period.

(A) The ballot shall list the names of each candidate, in random order, categorized by the position for which the respective candidates are running.

(B) The Election Board shall oversee the inclusion of any referendum questions on the ballot.

   i. The Election Board shall oversee the inclusion of any referendum questions on the ballot under the guidance of the SGLC Advisor(s).

      a. No member of the Election Board shall be permitted to submit a referendum question for review.

(C) A referendum question shall be a non-binding question placed on the ballot for vote by the undergraduate student body upon majority approval of the Senate or submission of a signed petition of at minimum five-hundred current undergraduate students of Loyola University Chicago.

   i. Prior to the collection of signatures, a petition’s posed referendum question shall be reviewed and approved by the Election Board.

      a. Any enrolled undergraduate student of Loyola University Chicago shall be eligible to submit a referendum question for review.
i. In order for a referendum question to be considered for review, the submitting parts shall include the intended referendum question, a pros list outlining the reasons for answering ‘yes,’ a cons list outlining the reasons for answering ‘no,’ and any additional materials the submitting party wishes to cite within their proposal, including but not limited to, research studies and survey results.

1. The submitted referendum question, the pros list, the cons list, and any additional materials supplied shall hereafter be referred to as the referendum materials.

ii. The referendum materials shall be submitted via an email addressed to SGLCelections@luc.edu from the registered Loyola email of the submitting party, with the subject ‘Referendum Materials Submission’, no later than 10 days prior to the scheduled day that the spring elections packets are due for the same year the referendum materials are submitted.

1. The Election Board shall have no more than 48 hours to reply to the submitting party’s email with a decision on whether the referendum materials were approved based on the following criteria

   a. The referendum question shall be phrased in a manner that can only be answered with either ‘yes’ or ‘no’.

   b. The referendum question shall be applicable to the entire undergraduate student body of Loyola University Chicago and be in congruence with the policies and processes of the SGLC

   c. The pros list shall include no less than one written reason for answering ‘yes’ to the referendum question, and the cons list shall include no less than one reason for answering ‘no’ to the referendum question.

   d. The referendum materials shall be written in an unbiased and clear manner and their contents shall be congruent with the mission of the SGC

i. The Election Board reserves the right to make edits to the referendum materials for clarity, to eliminate bias, and to ensure the contents are congruent with the mission of the SGLC.

1. Edits made to the referendum materials by the Election Board shall be final and shall be included and justified by the Election Board in the same email that contains the decision on whether the referendum materials were approved.

2. The submitting party reserves the right to either proceed with the approved referendum materials returned by the Election Board or withdraw their submission.

b. Once the referendum materials have been reviewed and approved by the Election Board, the submitting party can begin collecting petition signatures.

i. In order for a petition to be considered valid, the same petition shall only contain the complete approved referendum materials returned by the Election Board and space for signatures.

1. In order for a petition’s referendum materials to be considered for placement on the spring election ballot, the same petition shall contain no less than five-hundred legible, handwritten, complete signatures of enrolled Loyola University Chicago undergraduate students.

a. A complete signature shall be composed of a student’s printed first and last name, signature, Loyola University Chicago student identification number, and registered Loyola University Chicago email.

b. In order for a petition’s referendum question to be considered for placement on the spring election ballot, a hard copy of the same petition containing no less than five-hundred legible, handwritten, complete signatures of enrolled Loyola University Chicago undergraduate students must be submitted to a member of the Elections Board no later than the day and time that the spring election packets are due for the same year that the referendum materials of the same petition were approved.

i. All signatures of a completed petition shall be verified by the Loyola University Chicago Office of the Dean of Students.
ii. Any violation of the referendum guidelines as specified within the Articles of Governance shall be grounds for the disqualification of the referendum question and/or petition submitted by the violator as determined by a simple majority vote of the Elections Board.

(D) A referendum question that receives majority approval of the undergraduate student body of Loyola University Chicago shall be equal in weight to legislation of the Senate and shall not be vetoed by the President.

§8. Voting Period: The Voting Period for each Election of the SGLC shall be the duration of time during which voting shall take place.

(A) The right of any undergraduate student of Loyola University Chicago to vote during the Voting Period shall not be infringed.

(C) Voting shall be conducted by electronic or computer-based medium.

(D) The Voting Period for each Spring Election shall conclude no later than four weeks prior to the final day of the Spring semester.

(E) The Voting Period for each Fall Election shall begin no later than four weeks following the first day of the Fall semester.

(F) The duration of the Voting Period shall be no less than forty-eight hours.

(G) Candidates and their agents shall be prohibited from engaging in or conspiring to engage in the following activities:

   a. The buying of votes, including but not limited to the exchange of money or any other non de minimis consideration for a vote or votes.
   b. The promise of support, approval, or appointment of any individual to a public or private office of the SGLC or any other Loyola University Chicago entity in exchange for a vote or votes.
   c. The selling of votes to any other candidate.
   d. The prevention of voting or candidate support, including but not limited to restricting any voter’s ability to vote for or express support for any candidate.
   e. Voting more than once, or submitting, causing to be submitted, or aiding in the submission of a ballot by an individual who has already voted in the respective Election of the SGLC.
   f. Tampering with voting machines, including but not limited to interfering with the machines or methods used to receive, record, or report votes.
(H) The results of Elections of the SGLC shall be determined by plurality. Candidates who receive the plurality of the votes cast for the position for which they are running shall win the election for that position. Positions for which multiple candidates are to be elected shall be won by the candidates who receive the highest vote counts.

(I) In the event of a tie, the result of an Election of the SGLC shall be determined by a two-thirds majority vote of the membership of the Senate.

§9. Rights of Candidates:

(A) The Election Board shall not refuse any candidate for any Election of the SGLC the right to obtain a free copy of the Election Code and all information and forms pertinent to being a candidate in the respective election.

(B) The results of each Election of the SGLC shall be provided to each candidate prior to confirmation of that election.

(C) The right of each candidate to appeal any decision of the Election Board to the Judicial Branch shall not be infringed.

§10. Confirmation of the Election: The results of each Election of the SGLC shall be confirmed only by majority approval of the Senate. In the event that the Senate does not approve the results of an election, the results of that election shall be submitted to the Judicial Branch for review.

CHAPTER 9: Financial Code

Article 24: The Budget of the SGLC

§1. Establishment and Recurrence: All official expenditures of the SGLC shall be provided for by means of the Budget of the SGLC, hereafter referred to as the Budget. The Budget shall be a sum of money appropriated annually from the Student Development Fee and allocated to the SGLC at the discretion of the Office of the Vice President for Student Development.

§2. Composition: The Budget shall be apportioned across four separate funds: (A) The General Fund

(B) The Scholarship Fund

(C) The Student Activity Fund (D) The Green Initiative Fund

§3. The Budgeting Process: The total sum of the Budget for each succeeding term, including the apportionment of money across the four funds established in §2, shall be negotiated by the President, the CFO, the Speaker, the Chairperson of the Budget Committee, and the Office of the Vice President for Student Development, on an annual basis, during Loyola University Chicago’s budgeting cycle. The Budget Committee shall, no later than the eighth scheduled meeting of the Senate of each Spring semester, propose to the Senate an Act which details the allocation of the Budget across the various subordinate funds and scholarships. Money may be requisitioned from the Budget only after the Senate has approved the Act detailing the allocation of the Budget for the respective term of the SGLC.

§4. Reallocation Authority: For any given Budget, except where otherwise provided for within the Articles of Governance, the Senate shall reserve the exclusive authority to revise the apportionment of money within any of the four funds. The SGLC shall not, for any already-approved Budget of the SGLC, have the authority to adjust the total amount allocated to any of the four funds.

§5. Accounting System: The CFO shall be responsible for maintaining an accounting system.

(A) The CFO shall maintain a general ledger, which shall record all revenues and expenditures of the SGLC.

(B) The CFO shall distribute amongst the membership of the SGLC, once per week, a report listing all revenues and expenses incurred during the current term of the SGLC.

Article 25: The General Fund

§1. Purpose: The General Fund shall fund the operations of the SGLC.

§2. Composition: The General Fund shall be apportioned across several subordinate funds, which shall be limited to those established within this Article.

§3. Regulations and Supervisory Authority:

(A) Except where otherwise stated within this Article, the Senate shall have the exclusive authority to requisition money from the General Fund, or to transfer money between subordinate funds within the General Fund.

(B) The General Fund shall not be used to fund donations to any organization, outside of or within Loyola University Chicago.

(C) The requisition and use of funds from the General Fund shall not violate any Loyola University Chicago policy.

(D) The CFO shall be responsible for overseeing the disbursement of money that has been requisitioned from the General Fund by the appropriate supervisory authority for the respective subordinate fund.

§4. The Academic Affairs Committee Fund: The Academic Affairs Committee Fund shall fund the operations of the Academic Affairs Committee. The Chairperson of the Academic Affairs Committee shall have the authority to requisition money from the Academic Affairs Committee Fund. The Academic Affairs Committee may, by a simple majority vote of its membership, override a spending decision of the Chairperson.

§5. The Allocations Committee Fund: The Allocations Committee Fund shall fund the operations of the Allocations Committee. The Chairperson of the Allocations Committee shall have the authority to requisition money from the Allocations Committee Fund. The Allocations Committee may, by a simple majority vote of its membership, override a spending decision of the Chairperson.

§6. The Facilities and Transportation Committee Fund: The Facilities and Transportation Committee Fund shall fund the operations of the Facilities and Transportation Committee. The Chairperson of the Facilities and Transportation Committee shall have the authority to requisition money from the Facilities and Transportation Committee Fund. The Facilities and Transportation Committee may, by a simple majority vote of its membership, override a spending decision of the Chairperson.

§7. The Justice Committee Fund: The Justice Committee Fund shall fund the operations of the Justice Committee. The Chairperson of the Justice Committee shall have the authority to requisition money from the Justice Committee Fund. The Justice Committee may, by a simple majority vote of its membership, override a spending decision of the Chairperson.

§8. The Residents, Commuters, and Dining Committee Fund: The Residents, Commuters, and Dining Committee Fund shall fund the operations of the Residents, Commuters, and Dining Committee. The Chairperson of the Residents, Commuters, and Dining Committee shall have the authority to requisition money from the Residents, Commuters, and Dining Committee Fund. The Residents, Commuters, and Dining Committee may, by a simple majority vote of its membership, override a spending decision of the Chairperson.

§9. The Safety and Wellness Committee Fund: The Safety and Wellness Committee Fund shall fund the operations of the Safety and Wellness Committee. The Chairperson of the Safety and Wellness Committee shall have the authority to requisition money from the Safety and Wellness Committee Fund. The Safety and Wellness Committee may, by a simple majority vote of its membership, override a spending decision of the Chairperson.

§10. The Senate Discretionary Fund: The Senate Discretionary Fund shall be requisitioned or apportioned at the discretion of the Senate, by means of an Act.

§11. The Executive Discretionary Fund: The Executive Discretionary Fund shall be requisitioned at the discretion of the President. The Executive Branch may, by a simple majority vote of its membership, override a spending decision of the President.

§12. The Marketing Fund: The Marketing Fund shall provide for communications, marketing, visibility, and accessibility of the SGLC. The President and the CCO shall have the authority to requisition money from the Marketing Fund.

§13. The Election Fund: The Election Fund shall provide resources for the Elections of the SGLC. The Chairperson of the Election Board shall have the authority to requisition money from the Election Fund. The Election Board may, by a simple majority vote of its membership, override a spending decision of the Chairperson. No more than one-half of the total amount apportioned for the Election Fund during a given term shall be spent prior to the Spring semester.

§14. The Office Supply Fund: The Office Supply Fund shall provide for the day-to-day operations of the SGLC, including but not limited to the printing of legislation and the procurement of office supplies. The President, the Speaker, the Chief Justice, the CFO, the Secretary, and the Chief of Staff shall have the authority to requisition money from the Office Supply Fund.

§15. Leadership Development Fund: The Leadership Development Fund shall be provided for the training, transition, leadership development, and teambuilding activities of the SGLC, including but not limited to the SGLC Retreat and the Spring In-service. The President shall have the authority to requisition money from the Leadership Development Fund.

§16. The Feedback Website Fund: The Feedback Website Fund shall provide for any expenses associated with the operation or maintenance of the student feedback website. The President shall have the authority to requisition money from the Feedback Website Fund.

Article 26: The Scholarship Fund

§1. Purpose: The Scholarship Fund shall provide scholarships for certain members of the SGLC.

§2. Composition: The Scholarship Fund shall be apportioned across several individual scholarships, which shall be limited to the following:

- (A) The President
- (B) The Vice President
- (C) The Speaker

§3. Regulations and Supervisory Authority: The Senate shall have the exclusive authority to appropriate money from the Scholarship Fund.

§4. Disbursement: Individual scholarships from the Scholarship Fund shall be dispersed under the supervision of the Advisor(s) in two equal parts, one per semester, during each term of the SGLC, once during the Fall semester and once during the Spring semester, in that order, at such time that the position for which the individual scholarship has been appropriated is filled.

Article 27: The Student Activity Fund

§1. Purpose: The Student Activity Fund, hereafter referred to as the SAF, shall provide resources to be allocated to Registered Student Organizations.

§2. Allocation Authority: The Allocations Committee of the SGLC shall be the appropriator of the SAF. Eligible Registered Student Organizations, as determined by the Office of Student Activities and Greek Affairs, may request funding from the SAF through Semester Budget Requests and through SPOT Funding Requests.
(A) All funding shall conform to University Policy to be eligible for allocation.
(B) The Allocations Committee shall not allocate more than sixty percent of the total SAF during the Fall semester of each term.

§3. SAF Allocations Hearings: The Allocations Committee shall hear SPOT Funding Requests and Semester Budget Requests on dates determined by the office of Student Activities and Greek Affairs.

(A) The Allocations Committee shall meet at the end of each semester to hold Semester Budget Request hearings for Registered Student Organizations.

(B) The Allocations Committee shall hold not less than two Open House meetings per funding cycle, for not less than two hours each, at which one or more members of the committee shall be present to answer questions regarding the hearings process during funding cycles and the funding policies outlined in the Student Organization Handbook released by Student Activities and Greek Affairs as well as briefly review budget requests of Registered Student Organizations.

   i. For the purposes of this subsection, “funding cycle” shall include SPOT funding cycles and Semester Budget Request funding cycles.”

§4. SPOT Funding Requests: SPOT Funding Requests are requests for SAF money, which fund Registered Student Organizations’ planned experiences or events.

(A) Specific funding request dates will be set in the months of September, October, January, and February and determined based on the academic calendar.

(B) Registered Student Organizations may submit two SPOT funding event requests per SPOT cycle.
(C) Registered Student Organizations shall submit SPOT funding requests via OrgSync by a date and time set by the office of Student Activities and Greek Affairs.
(D) SPOT funding requests, once approved, shall be used for the current semester in which the request is made.
(E) SPOT funding requests shall be limited to twenty-thousand dollars per event request.

§5. Semester Budget Requests: Semester Budget Requests are requests for SAF money, which fund Registered Student Organizations’ planned experiences or events.

(A) Specific funding request dates will be set in the months of November and March and determined based on the academic calendar.

(B) Registered Student Organizations shall submit Semester Budget Requests via OrgSync by a date and time determined by the office of Student Activities and Greek Affairs.
(C) After hearing any rehearing requests a final allocation recommendation will be prepared and submitted to the Senate.
(D) Semester Budget Requests, once approved, shall be used for the subsequent semester in which the request is made.
(E) There is no request cap for any event requests during the Semester Budget Request cycle.

§6. Budget Transfers: Budget Transfers are requests made by Registered Student Organizations to transfer funds across line items of a specific planned experience or event, not across entire planned experiences or events.

(A) Registered Student Organizations desiring to alter the amount of funding allocated within a funding category shall submit a budget transfer request to the office of Student Activities and Greek Affairs.

(B) The Request shall either be approved in full or denied in full.
(C) Registered Student Organizations may not fundamentally alter the premise of the budget proposal.

§7. Senate Oversight

(A) The full Senate shall receive a briefing at the beginning of each new academic year concerning allocation protocols and the budget guidelines to facilitate their role as appropriator of the SAF.

(B) The Speaker shall participate in budget training along with the Allocations Committee, or shall schedule a training session with the Allocations Committee advisor, so that the Speaker is able to facilitate their role as appropriator of the SAF.

§8. Appeals

(A) Registered Student Organizations may file an appeal of the Allocations Committee ruling on their funding request.

    iii. Any Registered Student Organization may file an appeal of the Allocation Committee’s funding decision with the Senate.

    iv. A Registered Student Organization that wishes to appeal a funding decision must submit an appeal form to be reviewed by the office of Student Activities and Greek Affairs and the Senate before the deadline assigned by the office of Student Activities and Greek Affairs and the CFO. This petition shall include reasons for the appeal, any pertinent documentation, and a copy of the original budget request.

    v. The appealing Registered Student Organization shall not alter their original funding request(s).

    vi. An appeal that does not adhere to the specific parameters provided for within the Articles of Governance shall not be valid.

    vii. The Speaker shall determine whether submitted appeals are valid or invalid.
vi. The Speaker shall deny a hearing for an appeal that is determined invalid.

vii. The Speaker shall allow a hearing for an appeal that is determined valid.

viii. The Speaker shall notify the submitter of an appeal whether or not their appeal will be heard by the Senate at least forty-eight hours before the Senate meeting in which the appeals are set to be heard.

ix. The Speaker shall communicate to the Senate any appeal that is determined invalid and shall provide a rationale explaining why it was determined invalid.

(B) Grounds for Appeal of an Allocations decision

viii. An Appeal based on Procedural Error which shall consist of the Registered Student Organization proving that the Allocations Committee failed to adhere to its guidelines. The Senate must first determine whether the Allocations Committee did in fact deviate from its guidelines. Should this be sustained, then the Senate as a whole will determine whether or not to fund the Registered Student Organization in full.

ix. A Line Item Appeal shall consist of a Registered Student Organization disputing a particular line item in an approved funding request. The Registered Student Organization may appeal if the Allocations Committee reduced the allocation below the amount requested for a particular budget item, contending that the current allocation is insufficient to cover the cost of the event. The Senate will only rule on whether or not to allocate the full amount of the Registered Student Organization requested funding.

§9. Appeals Process

(A) The petitioning Registered Student Organization shall submit in writing to the office of Student Activities and Greek Affairs and the CFO the reasons for the appeal, any pertinent documentation, and the original funding request. No changes may be made to the original funding request.

(B) Representatives for the Registered Student Organization shall be allowed to attend the Senate meeting in which their request is heard; however, only one representative of the petitioning Registered Student Organization shall be allowed to speak on behalf of the same Registered Student Organization, and the same representative shall answer all questions on behalf of the same Registered Student Organization.

(C) The chairperson of the Allocations Committee shall provide a detailed report on the rationale for the original ruling. The chairperson shall answer all questions on behalf of the Allocations Committee. Members of the Allocations Committee shall abstain from participating in appeals hearings.

(D) A representative for Registered Student Organization shall then have the opportunity to present their case before the Senate.
Any sustained appeals shall be communicated by the Speaker to the office of Student Activities and Greek Affairs and to the Registered Student Organization within twenty-four hours of the Senate’s vote.

§10. Funding Guidelines: The funding guidelines shall be created by the office of Student Activities and Greek Affairs and the Allocations Committee, and a copy of the funding guidelines shall be provided to the President and the Chief Justice.

§11. Additional Rules & Regulations: Additional rules and regulations may be prepared by the SGLC in conjunction with the office of Student Activities and Greek Affairs.
