Join your fellow Ramblers in the School of Social Work in Springfield!

Let your voices be heard!

Wednesday, April 11th, Loyola University’s School of Social Work invites all Social Work students, staff, faculty, alumni and field instructors to join us on a trip to Prairie Convention Center in Springfield, Illinois. Join us to attend a half day of educational seminars followed by lobbying in the state capital.

The School of Social Work is sponsoring the Loyola community to attend this important event. An optional bus service will be provided for a $20 fee.

Register [HERE]!