LUC Literature in Israel

Israel: J-Term 2019

Focusing on the Hebrew Bible and The New Testament from a literary perspective, students will study the Biblical idea of the Land of Israel and the Holiness of Jerusalem. The program will introduce students to important historical locations and will consider key Jewish and Christian perspectives. Included in the program are exciting excursions to the Dead Sea, Nazareth, and the Sea of Galilee.

For more information, please contact the program faculty leader
Dr. Wiley Feinstein wfeinst@luc.edu

Costs
$747 faculty-led program fee plus 3 credits of LUC tuition

Included in Costs
Lodging, some meals, excursions, and more!

When
J-Term 2019

Apply now at LUC.edu/studyabroad

Many thanks to the American Friends of Hebrew University in helping to subsidize the program.