Rome, Italy Summer Global Faculty-Led Program
June 7 - 17, 2018

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION:
This intensive ten day study abroad program provides students from SCPS with the opportunity to fulfill a core requirement while having the experience of studying the subject matter on site. Virtually all classes will be held on-site in Rome.

COURSE TITLE:
FNAR 342: Art in Rome

COURSE INSTRUCTOR:
William McGuire
School of Continuing and Professional Studies

COURSE DESCRIPTION:
This is a survey of Rome's rich artistic heritage from antiquity to the modern period. It will examine the multi-layered cultural history of Rome focusing on the art of the Ancient, Early Christian, Medieval, Renaissance, and Baroque periods with reference to the modern city in which these historical monuments exist. Works of architecture, sculpture, painting, and mosaics will be studied within the context of Rome's evolving historical role as the center of a great empire, as the seat of the Catholic Church and Papacy, and as the capital of modern Italy. Through the study of art in Rome students will gain knowledge of artistic forms, styles, ideas, terminology, techniques, functions, iconography, and patronage in relation to their historical context.

CREDIT HOURS EARNED:
