LOCUS
LOCUS is a website that allows students to view and process financial information, change addresses and phone numbers, and request official transcripts.

To access LOCUS, students are required to have a username and password. You need to contact the Help Desk at 773.508.7190 to obtain this info. Only students may call to obtain this information and will need to provide proof of identity while on the line (parents/ guardians are not allowed to call on behalf of their student).

Students will also receive this information during Student Orientation and via email.

Loyola ID
Loyola ID card is the University’s official identification card for all Loyola students, faculty, and staff. For information about its various uses please visit luc.edu/campuscard/index.shtml

We will escort students during the Student Orientation to obtain their Loyola IDs. Your first ID card is free. If lost, a new card can be purchased for $25 replacement fee.

Parking
If residential students wish to park their vehicle in the parking garage overnight they must contact Loyola’s campus transpiration to determine the cost and the guidelines for parking in the university parking structure.

Dress Code
Appropriate clothing should be worn in an academic environment; please refrain from wearing clothing that references alcohol, tobacco, or drugs. Please be mindful that you are in a Jesuit institution of higher learning and while warm weather dictates summer attire, students are to avoid unacceptable articles such as exposed midriffs, exceedingly short shorts, and pajamas.

Exploring Chicago
At Student Orientation, we will review the boundaries around the Rogers Park area. We ask that commuter students abide by these set of parameters as well, which have been established for everyone’s safety.

For activities beyond the designated Rogers Park area, students will need added supervision by one or more staff members and/ or instructors.

Student Discretionary Funds
All meals and scheduled field trips are included in the program fees, unless otherwise noted on the Calendar of Activities, but students will need pocket money for laundry, snacks, souvenirs, and any activities which are not part of the program. We recommend bringing a discretionary amount per week for these expenses.

Food Options and Meal Plans
Residential and commuter students will be provided with a meal plan utilizing the Loyola dining facilities. Rogers Park offers various multi-ethnic food options, which can be purchased by the student using his/ her own personal funds. We would like to stress that eating out often can take its toll on the overall budget allocated to a student.
Local Address for Mail or Care Packages
Incoming letter mail and packages will be received by the Loyola’s Lake Shore Campus mail room. Please send all envelopes and packages to the following address.

Student name
Summer Scholars Program
