

8th Annual Women In Surgery

Department of Surgery, Grand Rounds

TBD

Dr. Amanda Gosman is Professor and Chief of the Division of Plastic Surgery at UC San Diego School of Medicine. She serves as Program Director for the Plastic Surgery Residency. She is Chief of Plastic Surgery at Rady Children's Hospital and Director of the Fresh Start Clinic for Craniofacial Anomalies

A board-certified plastic surgeon, Dr. Gosman specializes in cleft lip and palate repair, pediatric and adult craniofacial surgery, gender-affirming surgery, and aesthetic procedures. She is internationally recognized as a leader in craniofacial and pediatric plastic surgery, with more than 175 peer-reviewed publications.

Dr. Gosman is deeply committed to global health and education. She is the founder of ConnectMed International, a nonprofit organization that improves access to reconstructive surgical care in underserved communities through sustainable healthcare partnerships, education, and research. She also co-founded the SHARE (Surgeons in Humanitarian Alliance for Reconstruction, Research, and Education) program through the Plastic Surgery Foundation, a two-year clinical and research fellowship designed for surgeons from low-income countries.

In addition to her clinical and global health work, Dr. Gosman holds several prominent national leadership roles. She currently serves as the Chair of the Residency Review Committee for Plastic Surgery within the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME), President of the American Council of Educators in Plastic Surgery (ACEPS), Director of the American Board of Plastic Surgery (ABPS) and Co-Editor of Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery, Global Open. She is also the recipient of the ACEPS Goldwyn Mentor of the Year Award. Her past leadership roles include serving as President of the California Society of Plastic Surgeons (CSPS) and Chair of the Ethics Committee and Judicial Council for the American Society of Plastic Surgeons (ASPS).
