

Friends of the Chicago River

Title	Education Intern -- Chicago River Schools Network (CRSN)
Organization	Friends of the Chicago River
Learning Objectives	Interns will gain experience in facilitating site-based, environmental education as a way of raising awareness and increasing knowledge of the Chicago River for teachers and students.
Responsibilities	Primary Responsibilities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Facilitate classroom presentations to students in grades K-12 about the Chicago River • Lead field trips for K-12 students to the Chicago River—including water quality monitoring, ecology/nature exploration and habitat restoration activities • Maintain water quality monitoring equipment Other Duties may include one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Setup and staff educational displays at environmental fairs and other events • Assist with the planning and implementation of the Student Congress • Develop new classroom lesson plans and field trip activities for teachers • Deliver lectures on the watershed for various community groups • Assist in the preparation and teaching during Chicago River workshops • Develop and complete an independent project agreed upon by you and Friends' staff
Requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completed at least one year of college • Pursuit or completion of education, life science or natural resource management degree • Experience and/or genuine desire to work with school age (K-12) students • Knowledge of local ecology and Chicago River a plus • Ability to work independently • Valid driver's license--Access to a car helpful
Schedule	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Fall internship – Mid-September through mid-November • 10 hours/week – must include at least two weekdays from 9:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. • Some Saturdays and Sundays included • Dates are flexible depending upon student schedules
Compensation	Unpaid
Background	For over 35 years, Friends of the Chicago River has helped create a greener, more accessible and better cared for river. Our acclaimed programs include public policy and planning initiatives geared toward improving water quality and access to the river so that it can best support wildlife and a myriad of recreational uses; on-the-ground projects that physically improve the river and provide quality habitat; and education and outreach programs that inform and inspire people to help revitalize the Chicago River.
To Apply	Send resume and cover letter to: Mark Hauser, Education Manager Friends of the Chicago River 411 South Wells St., Suite 800, Chicago, IL 60607 mhauser@chicagoriver.org