This teach-in provides an opportunity to learn about the background to the current events unfolding in Afghanistan in the aftermath of the American withdrawal, collapse of the government, takeover by the Taliban, and frantic evacuation.

An interdisciplinary panel will offer diverse perspectives on topics including recent Afghan history, discourses around Afghan women and Islamic law, the global War on Terror, regional political implications, what we can do from here to help refugees, and the perspectives of ordinary Afghans followed by Q & A.

Thursday September 30

4:30-6:00 PM (CDT)

Register virtually: Please register here to attend this webinar virtually.

In-person registration: Please email cas-series@luc.edu with your name.

Limited in person participation in LSB 142 (for current students, faculty and staff)