

A COLLOQUIUM SPONSORED BY THE JOHN CARDINAL CODY CHAIR OF THEOLOGY
AND THE DEPARTMENT OF THEOLOGY

MAKING SENSE OF JESUS IN THE 21ST CENTURY

A CONVERSATION WITH
MICHAEL WELKER
UNIVERSITY OF HEIDELBERG

WENDY COTTER
ANTHONY GUDWEIN
JOHN MCCARTHY
DOMINIC TOMUSENI

MONDAY, APRIL 7, 2014
4:15 – 6:45 P.M.
COFFEY HALL – MCCORMICK LOUNGE

Refreshments will be provided

For more information, contact:

Edmondo Lupieri at elupier@luc.edu / 773-508-2363

John McCarthy at jmcar1@luc.edu / 773-508-2357

Michael Welker is Professor Emeritus and Senior Professor of Systematic Theology at the University of Heidelberg, Germany. Since 2005, he has been the Director of the Research Center for International and Interdisciplinary Theology, Heidelberg. He has been a frequent guest professor in North America (McMaster University, Princeton Theological Seminary and Harvard Divinity School), and a senior consultant scholar at the Center of Theological Inquiry, Princeton. His most recent book is God the Revealed: Christology (Eerdmans).

Michael Welker
God
the Revealed
Christology

Michael Welker
God
the Revealed
Christology

Michael Welker
God
the Revealed
Christology

Michael Welker
God
the Revealed
Christology