FOUNDATIONAL ACADEMIC AND LEARNING SUPPORT RESOURCES

Supplemental Instruction (SI) SI consists of regularly scheduled, out-of-class group study sessions driven by students' needs. Sessions are facilitated by trained peer leaders who attend class with you. Sessions are drop-in. View schedule → luc.edu/tutoring/SI

Group Tutoring Group tutoring consists of small groups of up to 8 students led by an undergraduate peer tutor. Appointments are required for all group tutoring and must be made 12 hours in advance. Bring your questions, notes, and textbooks. Sign up on TutorTrac → luc.edu/tutoring/peertutoring

Success Coaching One-on-one appointments will help you work on executive functioning, time management, reading comprehension, managing stress, and much more. Appointment is required. Sign up on TutorTrac → luc.edu/tutoring/successcoaching

Professors The Tutoring Center highly encourages you to connect with your professors and attend office hours. Professors are a great resource for help and comprehension of material.
