Biographical History

Blanche Marie Gallagher was born Patricia Mary Jane Gallagher on August 28, 1922, in Waverly, Iowa, to Blanche (Jacobson) and J. J. Gallagher. She entered the order of the Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary (BVM) on September 8, 1944.

Sr. Blanche Marie earned a B.A. from Mundelein College in 1944 and an M.F.A from the Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. in 1956 where she studied with Kenneth Noland. She also studied at the University of Colorado with Clyfford Still, the State University of Iowa, and the Giorgio Cini Foundation, in Venice, Italy. Sr. Blanche Marie also attended the Graduate Theological Union in Berkeley, California, from 1980 to 1981.

Prior to joining the faculty of Mundelein College in 1955, Sr. Blanche Marie held faculty appointments at several schools including Gesu School in Milwaukee and the Xavier High School in St. Louis. While at Mundelein, she held the position of Associate Professor (1955), Professor, and Chair (appointed 1961-1973, 1978-1979) of the Art Department as well as instructor in art criticism, painting, twentieth century and oriental art history, and light, color, and motion in art. In addition, she co-founded the Graduate Institute of Creation Spirituality in 1978 with Matt Fox, O.P. and taught at the Institute until 1983. Later, in 1988, she taught again with Fox at Holy Name College in Oakland, California. Following her appointments at Mundelein, Sr. Blanche Marie held a position at Loyola University Chicago as Professor in Pastoral Studies and continued to serve as part of the Emeritus Faculty until her death.

Sr. Blanche Marie was an artist, educator, and spiritual leader. These three vocations have formed the primary trajectory of her professional and personal endeavors over the course of her adult life. She exhibited her works professionally in national and international galleries since 1967. She also lectured extensively on her art and on spiritual growth throughout the world since 1967. Her efforts have taken her as far as Canada, France, England, Italy, Austria, Belgium, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Holland, Germany, Spain, Switzerland, Japan, Korea, Taiwan, Hong Kong, India, Nepal, Sri Lanka, Macau, Thailand, the Philippines, Mexico and Ghana.

Sister Blanche passed away in Chicago on November 19, 2010 after a brief illness.
