Administrative History

WorldWIDE Network was founded in 1981 “to educate the public makes about the vital links between women, natural resources and sustainable development.” WorldWIDE Network was comprised of international women members that focused on improving the environment and brought to the attention of others successful environmental projects that were managed or run by women. WorldWIDE Forums, or chapters affiliated with WorldWIDE, were formed by community women. The Forums were “[m]odeled on the tradition of women as actual and potential community problem solvers.”

Scope and Content

The WorldWIDE Network papers consist of 1 linear foot, span from 1990 to 1995, and are organized alphabetically. Original provenance was maintained whenever possible.
