A lifetime of integrity

Loyola’s Quinlan School of Business, Graduate School of Business, and our Accounting and Business Law Programs are all accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB) International, the premier accrediting body for schools of business. Less than five percent of business schools world wide have earned this distinction. Values are an integral part of the Loyola Experience, which is inspired by the Jesuit tradition of educating the whole person. As a part of that tradition, courses emphasize responsible leadership, diverse perspectives, and experiential learning. Quinlan also offers a Business Honors program, specifically geared toward students who plan to pursue careers in business.
