Notes

1. Transfer students can bring a maximum of 64 credits from a two-year college.

2. Admission is rolling.

3. The application for admission is the application for merit scholarships. Students must be admitted by Feb. 1 to be considered.

4. All transfer students with 20 college credits or more completed at the time of application are automatically considered for Loyola’s Transfer Merit Scholarships. Merit awards are renewable for up to three years for undergrads. Loyola also offers Phi Theta Kappa scholarships for students transferring from two-year community colleges.

Students cheer on the Ramblers.
Loyola is committed to helping students through the financial aid process. In addition to merit scholarships awarded at the time of admission, Loyola offers additional scholarships based on talent and academic interest. Students may also qualify for outside scholarships, grants, loans, federal work-study, or budget payment plans.
